

Exafunction DMCA Policy

Digital Millennium Copyright Act ("DMCA") Notice and Takedown Procedure

Exafunction, Inc. ("Exafunction") respects the intellectual property rights of others and expects its users to do the same. In accordance with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act of 1998, Exafunction will respond expeditiously to claims of copyright infringement committed using the services offered on or through our Deploys product if such claims are reported to Exafunction's Designated Copyright Agent, identified below.

Filing a DMCA Notice

If you believe that your copyrighted work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement and is accessible on Deploys, you may submit a DMCA notification containing the following information:

1. A physical or electronic signature of the person authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner;
2. Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works;
3. Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit Exafunction to locate the material;
4. Information reasonably sufficient to permit Exafunction to contact you, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an email address;
5. A statement that you have a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law; and
6. A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that you are authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner.

DMCA notices may be sent to:

DMCA Agent

Exafunction, Inc.

Attn: Legal Department (IP Notification), 900 Villa Street, Mountain View, CA 94041

Email: dmca@exafunction.com

Note: Before filing a DMCA notice, please be aware that misrepresentations in your notice may subject you to liability for damages (including costs and attorneys' fees) under Section 512(f) of the DMCA.

Counter-Notification Procedure

If you believe that your content was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification, you may submit a counter-notification that includes:

1. Your physical or electronic signature;
2. Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or disabled;
3. A statement under penalty of perjury that you have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification;
4. Your name, address, and telephone number, and a statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of the federal district court for the judicial district in which your address is located, or if your address is outside of the United States, for any judicial district in which Exafunction may be found, and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided the original DMCA notification or an agent of such person.

Counter-notifications should be sent to the Designated DMCA Agent listed above.

Upon receipt of a valid counter-notification, Exafunction may forward it to the original complaining party and reinstate the material in question within 10–14 business days unless the copyright owner files an action seeking a court order against the user.
